Title:	9 students fell ill due to food poisoning in Government-run School in Srikakulam, Andhra Pradesh
Action By CSU, IDSP -NCDC	Information communicated to DSU- Srikakulam, SSU- Andhra Pradesh

Nine students of government-run Jyotibai Phule girl's residential school in Palasa, Srikakulam of Andhra Pradesh fell ill on Wednesday after having dinner, Tv9 Telugu reported.

Students had complained of headaches and vomiting after dinner and were immediately rushed to the community healthcare centre (CHC). The students are stable and out of danger and doctors at the CHC continue to monitor them closely.

The students were sent back to the hostel from the hospital this morning. After a while, the students again came to Palasa CHC for treatment with the same health problems.

The officials formed a three-member medical team with physician, paediatrician, and a psychologist.

एक कदम स्वच्छता की ओर

This is the second such incident this month after 24 girls fell ill at a govt run school at a BC girls hostel in Kothavalasa, Vizianagaram district of Andhra Pradesh.

In January, 150 students suffered food poisoning at Ramakrishnapuram Gurukul school in Sattenpalli mandal, Palnadu district of AP.
